SUMMER EXHIBITION.

Many People Visiting the Yale School of Fine Arts.

The Yale School of Fine Arts, corner of Chapel and High streets, is being visited by many people this summer the building being open for the annual summer exhibition. Piloty's great paintng "The Wise and Foolish Virgins" was placed in the south gallery of the art school shortly before commencement, and is now the object of admiration of many groups of visitors. The picture occupies the entire west end of the south gallery. Magnificent pictures of Lincoln and Grant are among the recent gifts to the school, which were announced by President Dwight on commencement day. These two portraits are also hung in the south gallery near the "Wise and Foolish Virgins." The collection of Dutch and Flemish paintings, which has been at the school nearly two years, has been removed. The Trumbull collections of paintings, for the most part on subjects of colonial interest-battles of the Revolution and prominent American statesmen and enerals of that time-is well known to New Haven people, but is always an in teresting collection to visit. John Dwyer, a young teamster living at No. 12 Winthrop avenue, was before the city court yesterday morning charged with breach of the peace, his offense being an attack upon David Richards and his son, George Richards, who live at 104 Sylvan avenue. The whole cause of the affair was Miss Minnie Richards, Dwyer had been most persistent for a long time in forcing his attentions on Wednesday night he walked up to the Richards residence and asked to see Miss Minnie. Her father and brother George were both in evidence and ordered him away. Dwyer resented their orders with his fists, and his appearance in the city court yesterday morning followed as a natural sequence.

Dwyer in his defense told an incoherent, rambling story. Dr. Eliot yesterday examined him as to his sanity, and thinks he is insane. He will so report in the court this morning, to which time the court adjourned the case to give Dwyer an opportunity to verify his claims by witnesses which he claimed he could produce.

Miss Richards is a very respectable young woman, and the "yarn" that Dwyer tells that she has followed and mnoyed him, and not he the girl, is probably without any kind of foundation. She returned from a trip to Colorado two or three weeks ago, where she had been several months.

Mr. Richards, her father, was a Union oldler and served through the war, and is a G. A. R. man. He is an Odd Fellow well up in the order. The family have lived at 104 Sylvan avenue for the past twenty-seven years, where they own a pleasant home. They are favorably known in the neighborhood where they have lived so long.

PUBLIC CONCERT TO-NIGHT.

Residents of Edgewood Avenue and Vicinits Will Have Music in the Air-Fireworky

To-night people who wish to enjoy a pleasant concert and a beautiful display of fireworks should go to Edgewood avenue park. The public-spirited citizens in that vicinity have displayed their usual energy and have arranged for a grand band concert. They have arranged for it in their usual way, and have not left anything undone. Edgewood park, situated as it is so prettily in the very center of Edgewood avenue, helps make that street one of the nicest in the city, and it is an excellent locality for such an affair. Some time r to a committee of citizens from this section appeared before the band concert committee of the court of common council. They asked that one of the twelve concerts be given in Edgewood avenue park. This request was for some reason refused and the citizens, determined that Edgewood vill be a notable one. Two of the squares are to be decorated with Japanese lanterns and flowers. Mr. Champion has arranged these decorations, which will be very pretty. The band stand is to be located in the second square. This will give an opportunity for the many people who will e present to arrange their campstools and settees so that they can enjoy the oncert comfortably.

The concert is to be given for the pleasure of families and will therefore commence at 7:30 o'clock. This is in order also that the little folks can enjoy it as well as their elders. The public are invited to attend. The Second regiment band will play the following program:

March—Beau Ideal......Sousa
Overture—Poet and Peasant....Suppe Waltz-Moonlight and Starlight. Reed March-Raw Recruits..........Dalby Medley-Before the Footlights. Bendix Gathering of the Loons.. Factkenhauer Watermill Polka......Tilliarde Grand American Fantasie.....Bendix

Catarrh starts in the nasal passages affecting eyes, ears and throat, and is in fact, the great enemy of the mucous membrane. Neglected colds in the head almost invariably precede catarrh, eausing an excessive flow of mucous and if the mucous discharge become interrupted the disagreeable results o catarrh will follow, such as bad breath severe pain across forehead and about the eyes, a roaring and buzzing sound in the ears and oftentimes a very offensive discharge.
